

The Major Arcana

- 0: The Fool: This is the card of the beginner – indication that you are willing to learn. (Reversed): This is what you would think of when you think fool now, quick to follow slow to think.
- 1: The Magician: The card of the master – symbolizes someone who has the knowledge to reach goals (Reversed): This is an indication of someone deceptive.
- 2: The High Priestess: Intuition is a big theme with the High Priestess (Reversed): This card reminds you that you may not be listening to your intuition or something is making you question your gut feelings
- 3: The Empress: The Empress signifies fertility and productivity (Reversed): This card is reminding you to care for yourself and your natural resources
- 4: The Emperor: This card is about authority. It is about responsibility and organization (Reversed): This card shows that you may not be fulfilling your duties as a leader.
- 5: The High Priest (Pope or Hierophant): This card is a card of tradition, family, and religion. It represents a teacher of some sort passing values to the next generation. (Reversed): This card often appears when you are following tradition/religion blindly without regard to the changing world.
- 6: The Lovers: This card has to do with making a choice that has a large impact on your life (romantically or not) (Reversed): This is showing that you have not weighed the consequences of a decision
- 7: The Chariot: Make sure that you are moving with intention. (Reversed): This card often indicates that you are letting outside forces take over your life's direction
- 8: Strength: This card is about bravery and an upcoming situation where your courage will be needed. (Reversed): You have gone overboard with strength and have come off aggressive
- 9: The Hermit: The introvert's card. This card signifies that you should have some time to yourself. (Reversed): It is time for a mental vacation. Too much work and hustle can make you lose sight of your goals.
- 10: The Wheel of Fortune: Enjoy what you have and do not be ungrateful (Reversed): Make sure that you are prepared when fortune does not stay
- 11: Justice: Trust the impartial decisions of the universe (Reversed): This is the card of injustice. You should evaluate yourself to make sure that you have been honest and fair.
- 12: The Hanged Man: It is time to look at things from another point of view (Reversed): You may be looking at things through your own warped lens. Try and see them clearly.

13: Death: This card signifies a transition period. The symbolic “death” of one time in your life followed by a new beginning (Reversed): You may be holding onto some part of your life that is holding you back from moving forward.

14: Temperance: You need to acknowledge that you have different facets and they may oppose each other. (Reversed): You are feeling unbalanced – extremes are tempting but will just polarize you more

15: The Devil: It is okay to peruse pleasure in moderation (Reversed): You have lost sight of what is important while perusing temporary pleasure

16: The Tower: This warns that if you do not reevaluate your life’s path, the universe will force you to. It is often a good idea to take this card seriously and really think about what it is telling you in relation to your spread. (Reversed): Something bad has already happened and you need to grow from it. Dwelling on what happened will not help you grow.

17: The Star: Think of this card as a guide (like using the north star to guide) it offers comfort in the rebuild or being found when you feel lost. (Reversed): Make sure that you are seeing your situation and possible outcomes clearly. It does not help to have high expectations if they are not something that you can reach.

18: The Moon: You only have partial information and only time will let the other information reveal itself. (Reversed): Confusion is soon to be cleared as more information is going to become available to you.

19: The Sun: This is a time of success and abundance when all the hard work pays off. (Reversed): This should be a time of happiness, do not let pride interfere with that.

20: Judgment: This is a time of rebirth and new beginnings (Reversed): Warns that you may be ignoring something that will be life-changing and move your goals forward.

21: The World: This is showing a time of completion – projects that you have been working on are finishing up and you are returning to a start of a new project. (Reversed): Completion of your project has come to a halt because of unrealistic goals. Reassess and set reachable goals.

Wands

Ace: The Beginning can mean within a project, career, or a birth (Reversed): A project or goal is proving hard to begin.

Two: You are at a crossroad where either path you take you will have to give something up (Reversed): There is a happy surprise coming your way.

Three: This is encouraging you to expand your ventures (Reversed): Re-evaluate your plans and see what is holding you back from starting them.

Four: Your foundation for your goals has been set, keep moving forward (Reversed): There will be an interruption to your progress moving forward.

Five: This is a card that encourages competition and your competitive side. (Reversed): This is showing that your adversaries may ambush or attack you soon.

Six: A card of rewards and accomplishments (Reversed): You must rely on the goodwill and niceness of others.

Seven: This is the card of standing your ground – do not be a pushover (Reversed): This warns against being too timid to stand up for your beliefs.

Eight: You need to think on your feet and make a decision (Reversed): Do not rush, take your time on your projects.

Nine: You may fall down, but you need to get back up (Reversed): You may not be up to the challenge presented to you, take a step back to see if you are working at a disadvantage.

Ten: Your success is heavy – delegate where you can. (Reversed): Your refusal to delegate is going to bite you in the ass and colleges/friends may take advantage that you do not ask for help.

Page: Represents the want for adventure and new challenges (Reversed): Be aware of strangers and new people in your circle, and do not work off impulses.

Knight: This is a time of newness and action. Be ready for excitement and surprises at this time. (Reversed): The impulses of new travel or adventures may leave your responsibilities stranded.

Queen: Lean on your nurturing side while not losing your independence. (Reversed): Do not be too prideful or overbearing in projects at hand.

King: Authority and leadership are needed right now. (Reversed): Being egotistical will not make people want to work for you or with you.

Cups

Ace: Emotional beginning (new relationship or creative project). (Reversed): Loneliness may be arising due to delay in beginning a new relationship.

Two: A personal relationship is getting stronger. (Reversed): Difficulty in a personal relationship.

Three: There is a time of celebration among friends coming up. (Reversed): Too much celebration is leading to becoming irritated (with friends or the situation).

Four: This card signifies a mental block – you may be ‘stuck in a rut’. (Reversed): New things are entering into your life. Trust your intuition.

Five: There is a disappointment that needs to be addressed. (Reversed): It is time to gain a new outlook on life.

Six: Old pleasant relationships will be revitalized. (Reversed): Take pleasure in memories as the present may not be easy to be in.

Seven: Daydreams can cause confusion and waste times that could be spent on goals. (Reversed): Daydreams are important, but you must make real goals and live in the moment.

Eight: You may be looking for an ‘upgrade’ in life (relationships or projects). (Reversed): Take a second to think about what you would be abandoning for this ‘upgrade’.

Nine: This is a time of fulfillment and time to celebrate with friends. (Reversed): This is a card warning against an obsession with material goods and wants.

Ten: This is a time that healing is done – fulfillment is here, enjoy it while you can. (Reversed): This card represents brokenness in the home – tension and fighting may be happening.

Page: There is a new life entering into your social circle. (Reversed): Dependency can be a crutch be careful not to let people rely too heavily where they are no longer growing independent.

Knight: This knight is here to sweep you off your feet as he brings new and fiery romance. (Reversed): Be wary about charmers and what they are hiding.

Queen: Emotional intelligence is important for the problem at hand. (Reversed): Do not let empathy for others overtake your other emotions.

King: It may be time to turn to an expert that can offer sensible and wise advice. (Reversed): Be careful of the manipulator or someone looking to exploit you.

Swords

Ace: This is time to focus the mind and face new challenges with a clear mind and with a thoughtful disposition. (Reversed): A warning to not fight (physically or emotionally) as it will not be to your advantage.

Two: This is a time of peace making with friends or adversaries. Find a balance between opinions. (Reversed): You are having a hard time trusting yourself as you have not been entirely honest leading to feeling out of balance.

Three: “Being cut off” This is a card of separation for relationships. Often associated with heartbreak. (Reversed): It is time to let yourself mourn and move on. Holding onto grief only anchors you to the sadness.

Four: You need to take time disconnected from others to recharge. (Reversed): You may be feeling isolated, but assess the situation to see if it is self-imposed.

Five: This shows the emotion between the winner and the loser. It warns to be a ‘good sport’ and take into consideration the feelings of your competitors (Reversed): Do not wallow in your own loss for too long, it is time to get up and move on.

Six: You may be or you may be relying on a guide to guide you away from trouble – trust in this person is important. (Reversed): There is something blocking you from escaping troubling times.

Seven: This is time for planning and not time for action. (Reversed): Make sure that you are protecting yourself from deceit.

Eight: The feeling of being trapped on in a standstill. (Reversed): If you are feeling trapped, it may be of your own doing – look at your situation and try to find a way forward.

Nine: This is a time of mental unrest – you may be worried or letting anxiety get the best of you. (Reversed): You are avoiding what scares you, but that does no good to resolve the issue at hand.

Ten: You have hit rock bottom- your problems have come to climax, and you can only move up from here. (Reversed): Negative thoughts and toxic people are keeping you from moving forward

Page: This card represents a young but logical mind. (Reversed): A sharp mind that is manipulative and uses many relationships to their advantage.

Knight: Move now to protect you and your circle. Make quick and clear decisions and act upon them. (Reversed): Do not let impulse take over and make sure to think clearly before acting.

Queen: This may be a time of sorrow, but it is important to be smart and not let yourself be taken advantage of. (Reversed): At this time of sorrow, do not lash out at those around you.

King: This card represents clear and decisive action from an authority figure. (Reversed): A leader may be using their authority to cause harm or fear in others.

Pentacles (Coins)

Ace: New wealth is on its way. (Reversed): You need to adjust the way that you approach money.

Two: You are balancing two responsibilities (often work and family). You are doing okay, and stability is on its way. (Reversed): You have too much in the works and are not balancing it all. It may be time to let go of a project or responsibility.

Three: A good collaboration is coming your way – this will highlight your talents. (Reversed): This card warns against not pulling your own weight when working with others.

Four: Now is the time to financially plan for future endeavors. (Reversed): Materialism is standing in your way of having meaningful relationships.

Five: Trouble for relationships based on money is afoot, but the relationship can withstand that. (Reversed): Relationships are put into rocky waters when real problems arise (money or health).

Six: This is the card of financial security – express generosity if you can. (Reversed): This card warns to reassess the way that your money is being spent as it may be unfairly.

Seven: You have reached a good midpoint to plan your next financial move. (Reversed): If you are wondering what your next move should be it is time to consult an expert.

Eight: Remember that you have to give investments time to grow and that you have to put in work to get what you want out of it. (Reversed): This card warns against being lazy with the time that you are putting into your work.

Nine: When this card arises be prepared for your hard work to pay off. (Reversed): Someone on your team has not upheld their responsibilities and it is time to abandon or reassess this project.

Ten: Your hard work is paying off and you can take care of those around you. (Reversed): There is an issue within the family based on money.

Page: News of forward movement is on its way. (Reversed): The news that you are receiving is not what you want to hear.

Knight: This is someone who works hard, but in return does not have much time to spend elsewhere. (Reversed): This represents lack of motivation in work and relationships.

Queen: You must take care of what you have been given (your body and material). (Reversed): A warning that you have not been taking proper care of yourself.

King: This card shows the potential to take leadership in a new project and that you should strive for success. (Reversed): A warning against greed and acting from a place of insecurity.